Our members receive five free places on all of our webinars. These webinars, open to members and non members, are coordinated with the diversity calendar and cover a broad range of inclusion topics. They showcase thought leadership and offer practical steps for your inclusion practices.

Qualifications and courses

We offer three levels of Chartered Management Institute (CMI) accredited courses to support and inspire inclusion learning, whatever stage of your career you are at. Whether you're a network lead, inclusion ally, I&D or HR professional, or a business leader, we have a learning solution for you.

Consultancy

All employers face different challenges so we'll work in partnership with you to understand your organisation's inclusion objectives. After getting to know your organisation, workforce and culture we can review and develop strategies, cultures and systems that will create inclusive working environments.

Examples of consultancy include writing I&D strategies and action plans, inclusive recruitment, pay gap consultancy and policy reviews.

Inclusive Employers Standard Accreditation

Become accredited as an inclusive employer. Our inclusion accreditation, the Inclusive Employers Standard (IES), is a fantastic opportunity to measure, review and celebrate your organisation's inclusion achievements. We incorporate a feedback process that is action focused and goal orientated, to ensure you are supported to develop your inclusion agenda.

Inclusion and diversity training

We provide bespoke training and workshops to suit the needs of your organisation. We'll work with you to develop an outcome focused inclusion training plan that will include innovative techniques to engage delegates, through blended learning approaches..

What I love about the team at IE is how approachable and 'Human' you all are - this makes working with you a positive experience. Behind the personable approach however is true trusted credibility which is invaluable.

I always find with Inclusive Employers' webinars you get genuine experts presenting tangible actions that can be used to achieve genuine change.

Inclusive Employers Standard

The process was really straightforward and easy to complete, and it was really useful to hear the feedback provided by the Inclusive Employers team – their insight helped us to understand which areas we could improve on and where we excelled.

Our Inclusive Employers Standard is a step-by-step, evidence-based accreditation tool. It provides organisations with an opportunity to become accredited as an inclusive employer and provides a framework for setting and writing your inclusion & diversity strategy. Put simply, it's the best way of checking how much of an inclusive employer your organisation is.

Participating employers demonstrate their work in six areas of Inclusion & Diversity, known as the six pillars:

Engage

Equip

Empower

Embed

Evaluate

Evolve

They receive in-depth, confidential feedback and practical recommendations (alongside being awarded a Gold, Silver or Bronze banding) that enable them to understand what's going well and where they need to focus their efforts.

Organisations at an early stage in their inclusion journey that are not yet ready to seek accreditation can benefit from the Inclusive Employers Standard Foundation Assessment.

The Foundation is flexible in that it can be undertaken at any point in the year. It offers an external review of your current inclusion programme with structured feedback and recommendations for next steps.

Why participate?

- Become an accredited Inclusive Employer organisation
- Assists with developing an action plan or diversity & inclusion strategy
- Helps you to understand in very practical terms what 'good' looks like across your organisation, what is and isn't working, and what you need to do in order to get it right
- Provides impartial, objective evidence to persuade senior management to invest in business improvement
- Compare your performance with organisations
- Measures progress and rewards innovation.
